JOHN P. WHEELER III
 VIETNAM VETERANS MEMORIAL FUND (VVMF)
 1100 VERMONT AVENUE, NORTHWEST
 WASHINGTON, D.C.
 POSSIBLE WIRE FRAUD

On March 2, 1984,

[redacted] Washington, D.C., telephone number (202) [redacted], home telephone [redacted], met by prior arrangement with SA [redacted] Alexandria Division. [redacted] was given SA [redacted]'s name by [redacted], a retired [redacted] employee who is known to Alexandria as the subject of [redacted] Files [redacted] (pending) and [redacted] (closed). Also present at this meeting was [redacted], [redacted] telephone number [redacted]. Effective March 12, 1984, [redacted] will be employed by the [redacted] on [redacted], Washington, D.C., telephone number [redacted].

[redacted] stated that he believed that a possible fraud scheme involving raising money for the VVMF, chartered in the District of Columbia, had been uncovered by [redacted] who had been doing investigative reporting. [redacted] then stated that he had done a considerable amount of investigation regarding the VVMF and that his investigation revealed that the VVMF had not accurately reported the money it had raised and had fraudulently spent or given money contrary to its charter. [redacted] further stated JOHN P. WHEELER III, currently the General Counsel to the SECURITY EXCHANGE COMMISSION, in Washington, D.C., was a founder of and integrally involved with the VVMF and this scheme.

[ ] stated that his investigation revealed money had been raised from a number of states with Washington, D.C., being the focal point. [ ] further stated that WHEELER had tried to scare him from the investigation by having him arrested [ ] recently on a trumped-up charge involving the [ ]
[ ] These charges were later dropped.

[ ] stated he would be glad to go over his notes in detail with an Agent of the FBI.

From this initial conversation it appears that since the subject organization and person are in the District of Columbia, WFO should assume Office of Origin in this matter.
